STATE OF INDIANA
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT
INDIANAPOLIS

EXECUTIVE ORDER

PROCLAMATION

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS MAY COME, GREETINGS:

WHEREAS, each year Indiana joins states across the nation in recognizing National Trails Day as a time to celebrate America’s magnificent trails system and its countless supporters and volunteers; and

WHEREAS, Indiana trails enhance the quality of life of Hoosiers of all ages and abilities by providing opportunities for education, fitness, and recreation; and

WHEREAS, trails promote a healthy lifestyle by accommodating a wide variety of physical activities that allow Hoosiers to breathe fresh air, get their hearts pumping, and move their muscles; and

WHEREAS, trails and greenways provide a safe and environmentally-friendly alternative means of transportation, stimulate economic development, boost tourism, and strengthen families and communities; and

WHEREAS, Indiana serves as a leader in trail development with innovative ideas, sustainable designs, and a number of trails projects receiving national and international acclaim; and

WHEREAS, Indiana proudly offers more than 3,340 miles of public trails and strives to achieve an ambitious new goal of providing trail opportunities within 5 miles of every Hoosier;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Michael R. Pence, Governor of the State of Indiana, do hereby proclaim June 5, 2014 as in the State of Indiana, and invite all citizens to duly note this occasion.

In Testimony Whereof, I have set my hand and cause to be affixed the Great Seal of State. Done at the City of Indianapolis, this 29th day of May in the year of our Lord 2014 and of the Independence of the United States 238.
